

Director of Planning & Zoning -The Town of Maiden, pop. 3,393, is seeking a highly qualified and motivated individual to serve as the Director of Planning and Zoning and as Code Enforcement Officer. This is a one-person department. A successful candidate will have strong relationship building and communication skills. This position requires an individual to work with citizens, elected officials and volunteers. Work is performed under the general supervision of the Town Manager. This individual will act as the liaison for the Town with several different local and regional planning organizations. The position requires knowledge of reviewing applications, permits, subdivision plats, general development plans, zoning interpretations, GIS, floodplain regulations, and Phase II Stormwater regulations. A strong candidate would have a minimum of a 4-year degree in city/regional planning, public administration, or related field and 2 yrs. or more of experience in municipal planning. A candidate may distinguish themselves with a Master's Degree. Salary: DOQ. Position is open until filled; however, priority will be given to candidates who apply by April 7th. Interested applicants should submit salary requirements/history, cover letter, & resume to: Town of Maiden, Attn: Town Manager, 19 N. Main Avenue, Maiden, NC 28650. Selected applicants will be subject to a pre-employment substance abuse screening. The Town of Maiden is an EOE.